

The Children's Storefront

VIRTUAL LEARN & PLAY SESSIONS For Families With Infants And Children Through Age Three

APRIL BRINGS: Holidays, Rain, Poems & Spring Flowers!

The rainy month of April brings us puddles to splash and Spring flowers. April is a busy month with holidays that many families observe.

Here are some other wonderful April celebrations!

April is Autism Acceptance Month: Read More

April 22 is Earth Day: Read More

April is National Poetry Month: Read More

A Beautiful Poem To Read To Children:

“Keep A Poem In Your Pocket,”
by Beatrice Schenk de Regniers.

Read & Print "Keep A Poem In Your Pocket"

Listen To: "Keep A Poem In Your Pocket"

PARENT TAKE AWAY: Connect To Nature With Your Child

Even in the most urban environments you can connect to nature with your child. Pointing out the flowers poking through the grass in the park or stopping to admire the colors Spring flowers at the market are simple everyday moments to enjoy nature together.

Read more ways to share to nature with your child:

Turn Any Walk Into A Nature Walk

See Spring Flowers At These Public Gardens

Why Kids Need To Spend Time In Nature

PARENT'S BOOKSHELF

Let's Read Together!

Reading is one of the most valuable activities to do with your child. Here's some books – plus a poem - for April.

Spring Themed Book Read Alouds Celebrating Spring & The Earth!

The Earth Book, by Todd Parr

A Grand Old Tree, by Mary Newell Depalma

Planting a Rainbow, by Lois Ehlert

Plus, a special Read Aloud...

The Very Hungry Caterpillar, read by author Eric Carle

READING IS WONDERFUL!

Read To Your Child Every Day!

JOIN OUR FREE VIRTUAL LEARN & PLAY SESSIONS

Contact Us: vlp@TheChildrensStorefront.org Read More: www.TheChildrensStorefront.org